

DECEMBER 2010

LION & LAMB NEWSLETTER

COMING HOLIDAYS AND SCHOOL CLOSURES

We will be closed on December 23rd and 24th for Christmas. We will be open on Friday, December 31st for New Year's Eve. Your tuition will remain the same for December as we are closed only these 2 days. If your child has been enrolled for at least six months, you may take a week's vacation credit by filling out the vacation form (blue) by the front office. Also, some of our regular teachers will be taking time off and we will have subs during the Christmas vacation.

LABELING COATS AND CLOTHING

We appreciate you labeling all your children's clothing (coats, mittens, boots, scarves, etc). It sounds like we're wishing for snow by including boots, scarves, and mittens. ☺ With so many items to keep track of for each child, it really helps us to have names on everything. Thank you!

SICK CHILDREN

We have definitely entered the cold and flu season! If your child shows any signs of illness, please keep them at home. ☺ The teachers and maintenance staff do their best to keep the rooms, tables, chairs, and toys as germ-free as possible and it really helps all of us when we have healthy children at school! Thank you for helping us with this important safety issue.

PRESCHOOL OPENINGS

Do you have friends or family who would love to have their child enrolled at The Lion & Lamb? We are praying for enough three year olds to begin another class after the New Year. ☺ Our wonderful families are our best advertisement! Thank you for spreading the word! We appreciate you, and want you to know what a huge blessing you are to all of of us at The Lion & Lamb.

May your Christmas be filled with God's precious love!
